Ruby color. Aromas of black raspberry, currant, vanilla, and black pepper with a soft, vibrant, dry medium-to-full body and a warming, complex, medium-long black cherry, plum, blackberry, and leather finish with medium tannins and moderate oak. This deep violet red manages to balance decadent amounts of dark fruit with just enough tannins, acidity and spice to keep everything in check and have you coming back for more and more and more.

Ruby color. Aromas of black raspberry, dried plum, crushed cherry, and black pepper with a creamy, tangy, dry medium-to-full body and a smooth, interesting, medium-length cherry, black raspberry, crushed plum, and vanilla finish with well-integrated, chewy tannins and moderate oak. Fruit packed and brimming with lively, dark fruit, chewy, but well-integrated tannins pull everything together in juicy balance.

Yellow color. Aromas of baked apple, lemon, cantaloupe, and creek stone with a round, soft, dry light-to-medium body and a graceful, intriguing, relaxed yellow apple, honeydew, quince, and river rock finish with no tannins and no oak. Bright, minerally and food loving, the acidity balanced with the crisp apples and pears begs to be enjoyed at the table with fresh, vibrant cooking.

Ruby color. Aromas of black cherry, currant, roast meat, and cigar box with a creamy, bright, dry medium-to-full body and a peppery, intricate, medium-length black plum, dark cherry, vanilla, and black pepper finish with well-integrated tannins and moderate oak. Chewy dark cherries, vanilla, black pepper and blackberries are in perfect balance in this bold, almost rustic sangiovese.
